

Nieve Rubaja

Name of Speaker: Nieve Rubaja (She is a teacher at the University of Buenos Aires, Argentina, on the subject of private international law. She is also a researcher and member of American Association of Private International Law (ASADIP) and the UBACyT. This are accredited research projects funded by the UBA that aim to make a real contribution to knowledge of the topic under investigation and contribute to the training of researchers (UBACyT)

Abstract:

Aim of the paper is to report about the argentine international private law on the recovery of maintenance – based on international treaties and national legislation – and the practical difficulties in international maintenance cases. The speaker plans to highlight the possibilities and advantages of the Argentinian legal figure of the “Foro del patrimonio o bienes del deudor”.